
Tegrit Financial Group, a private venture capital firm focusing on financial and management solutions for the public sector, has announced that Richard Goldman has joined the company as its Chief Investment Officer. Goldman, who has 25 years of experience in the investment business as a portfolio manager overseeing multi-billion dollar ERISA and 40 Act portfolios and as a head of equity businesses, was most recently Chief Operating Officer for Plinthos Capital, where he built an infrastructure for a multi-strategy investment incubation and seeding business.
